

What next, give people the right to enter our homes. Please do not lessen the telephone privacy act. Do you not value family? Nothing worse than while trying to spend some quality time with my family, getting an unwanted phone call from a stranger trying to sell me services that I did not request, nor want. I feel very violated when these people call and have access to my phone number, what else do they know? Please think about our privacy!